8 BIRDS TOURS & EVENTS

About Us

Founded in 2017, 8 Birds Tours and Events has grown into a trusted partner for global organizations, delivering seamless corporate tours and event solutions across South Korea. Our experienced team combines expertise in travel, event planning, and hospitality to craft immersive, detail-driven experiences.

Co-founder Yoonie Park brings a strong foundation in history and culture, shaped by her background as a museum curator. Her passion for storytelling and authenticity guides the thoughtfully designed journeys that connect travelers with Korea's rich heritage.

Founder

About Daniel Gray

Daniel Gray, co-founder of 8 Birds Tours and Events, is driven by a passion for sharing the authentic beauty of South Korea with global travelers. He has worked with leading international companies including Apple, Google, and BMW to create unique and memorable experiences.

Through a focus on culture, food, and storytelling, he delivers meaningful journeys supported by seamless, customized service.

Seoul Eats & Media Work

His blog Seoul Eats has been featured in major media outlets such as The New York Times, Serious Eats, Bizarre Foods, and Parts Unknown. Daniel has contributed to over 50 video productions on Korean food and culture and appeared regularly on KBS World. He has also collaborated with global brands including Mars, Yahoo!, and Google, providing tours, events, and consulting.

Netflix Korea Collaboration

Daniel collaborated with Netflix Korea on the series Street Food: Asia, serving as a local expert and cultural guide. He contributed insights into Korea's street food traditions, helping bring authenticity and depth to the program and showcasing Korean culinary heritage to a global audience.
