

Ride Through Korea: Seoul to Busan Cycling Tour

Summary: Visit the Modern Country of Korea and travel along its extensive network of bike trails. Over 1600km of bike trails were built to encourage good health and to show off the natural beauty. We will travel from the technological and modern Seoul from Bukhan: The North of the River to Gangnam: South of the River, which will showcase its flair and fun. Then we will start along the 4 rivers route to Busan, the Beach capital of the country.

Key Activities and Destinations

- Ride Along the 4 Rivers Routes
- Visit the Art University Area of Hongik University
- Visit Gangnam and the home of Kpop
- Ride along the famous Ari Trail
- Visit Paldang's vibrant cycling community
- Go to historic Yongin Folk Village and Attraction
- Explore Busan and ride along the beaches

Key Inclusions

- Lodging for 7 nights
- Bike Hire
- Repair kit
- Welcome Snack Kit
- Luggage Porterage

Exclusions

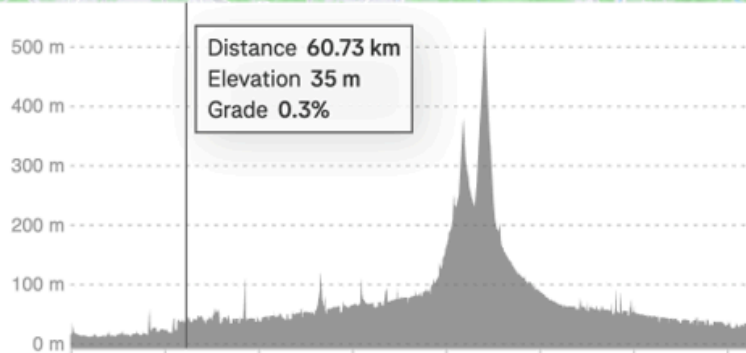

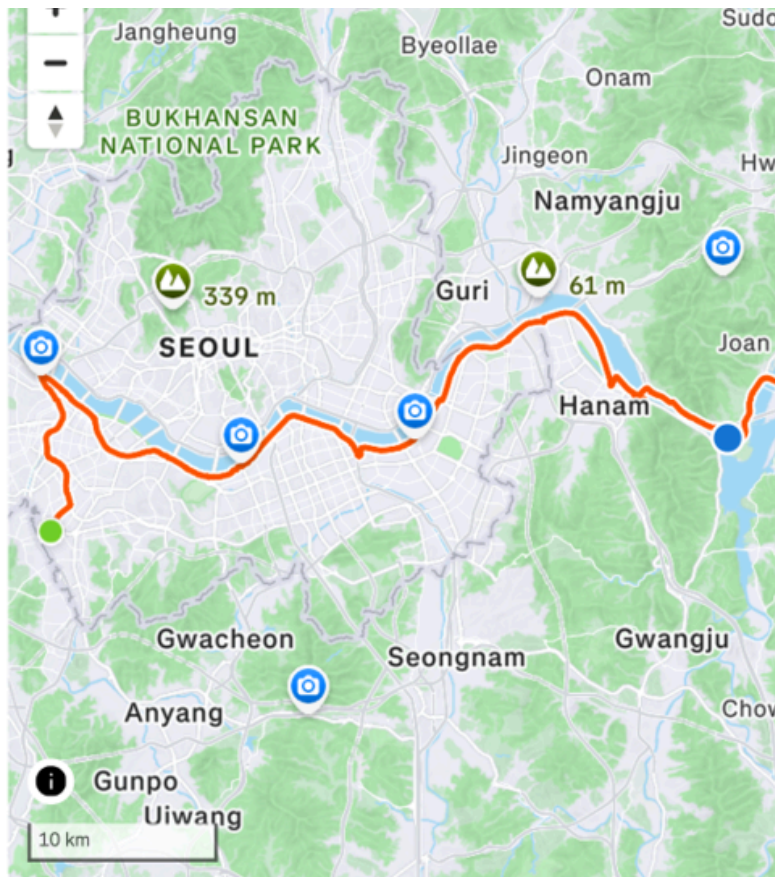

Breakfasts. Breakfasts at hotels are unpredictable. They are western luxuries so they are overpriced ($15-$30USD) and they might not be up to your standards. We recommend you book on arrival or choose dates you would like breakfast. There are many bakeries, coffee shops, and Korean breakfast places around your hotels which will cost around $7 USD for a meal.

Day 1

Welcome meeting. Briefing and Bike Check. We will check into our hotel near the shopping district of Gasan Digital Complex. We will meet the guides and then head to our “Bike Cave” , our bike storage and bike workshop. We’ll do a welcome meeting and then you’ll get to pick out your bike and get it kitted out to your specs by our staff mechanics. After the orientation and bike check, we’ll have your bike ready for your ride the next day at the bike cave.

Inclusions: Orientation meeting, bike check and bike fitting.

NOTE: A Bike Helmet is necessary for cycling in Korea. Either guests should bring their own or buy here. I don't know what your insurance policy states on this. We are not allowed to give helmets according to some insurance policies.

Day 2: Hangang River to Paldang

In the morning, we'll have a taxi take you to the bike cave because the route to the river is easiest to get to from there. Your luggage will be portered to your hotel in Paldang. You'll ride from Anyang stream to the Han River and ride along Seoul to Paldang, the famous biking trail of Korea. You'll have cafes you can stop at, plenty of facilities and nice cyclists to help you if you need help taking pictures or if you lose your way. Today's ride will be 60km with a max elevation of 30m.

Timing

8am pickup from hotel to Bike Cave. Pickup Bikes and start trail. Luggage Portorage to Hotel.

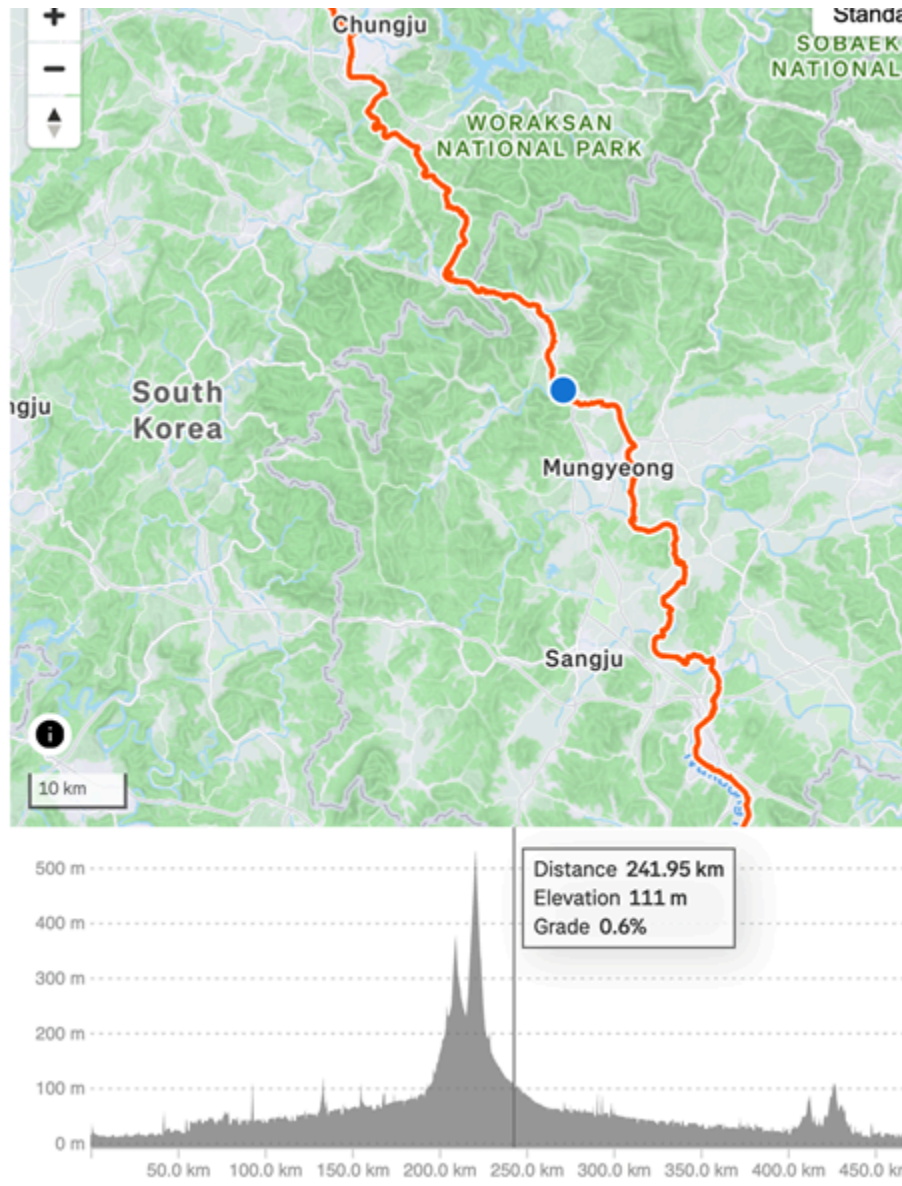

Day 3: Namhangang River: Riding along the South Hangang River

You will continue down the South Hangang River. A scenic trail along the river with the we go towards Yeosu another well known biking trail for enthusiasts. Along the way we'll pass parks, towers, bike shops, bike repair shops and many scenic cafes. We'll be staying in Yeosu City today. Today's route is 57km with a max elevation of 40m.

Day 4: Over the valleys and across the bridges of the South Hangang River

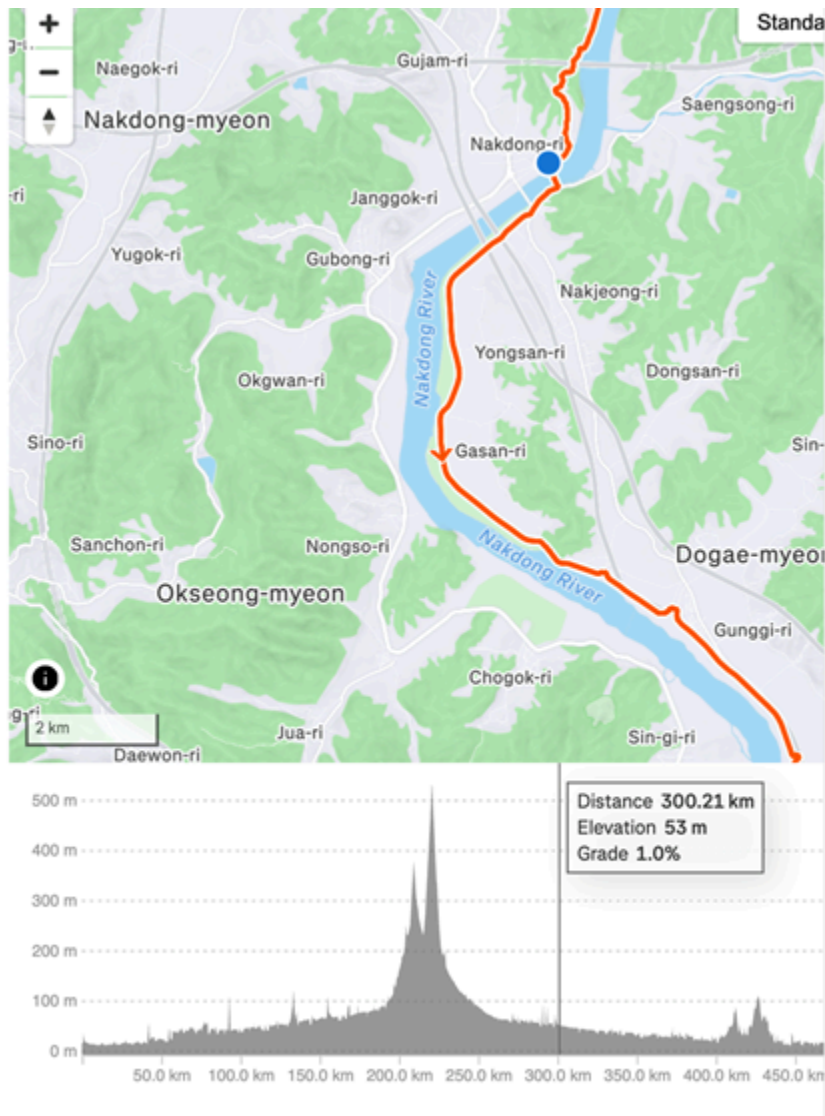

We will continue south along the river. Some of the trail will be covered wooden bridges and we'll pass parks of wild flowers and see distant mountains as we pass through Samhap, Buronmeyong and Gangcheon stream. When you get to Chungju, we'll find a bike stand. Lock up your bike and we'll help you get a taxi to your hotel in the city. We recommend you carb up because tomorrow will have some hills. Today's route will be 52km with an elevation of 75 m.

Day 5: Up, up and then a nice decent

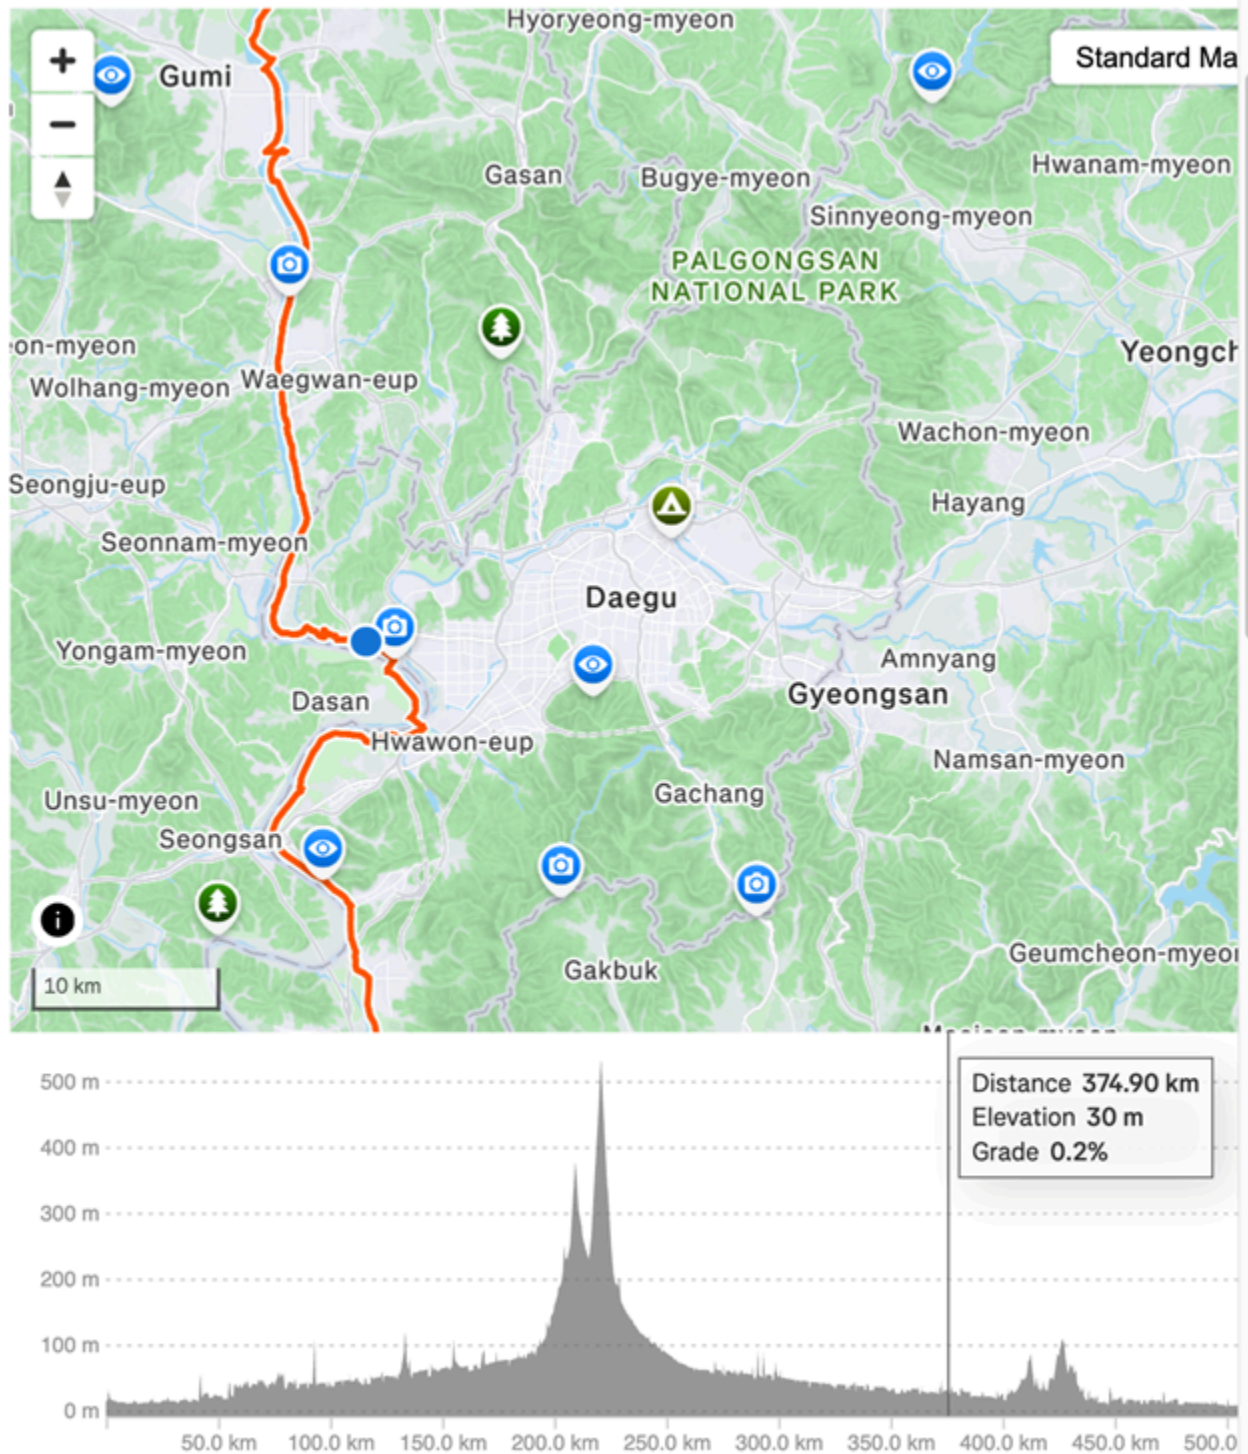

Today, there are two hills: Sojoryung (362m) and Ihwaryung (548m). We put them near the start of the day when your legs will be freshest. There is about 7.5km of climbing and then a descent till we get to the hotel. If you can make it up these two peaks, then you don't have to fret because there aren't any other hills of this sort for the rest of the ride. Today's ride is 66 km with elevations of two hills of 370m and 520m.

Hotel: Sunnystay Pension 177-9 Jinnam 1-gil Maseong-myeong-si Gyeongsangbukdo Ph" 010-9056-0020

Day 6: Down Nakdong River

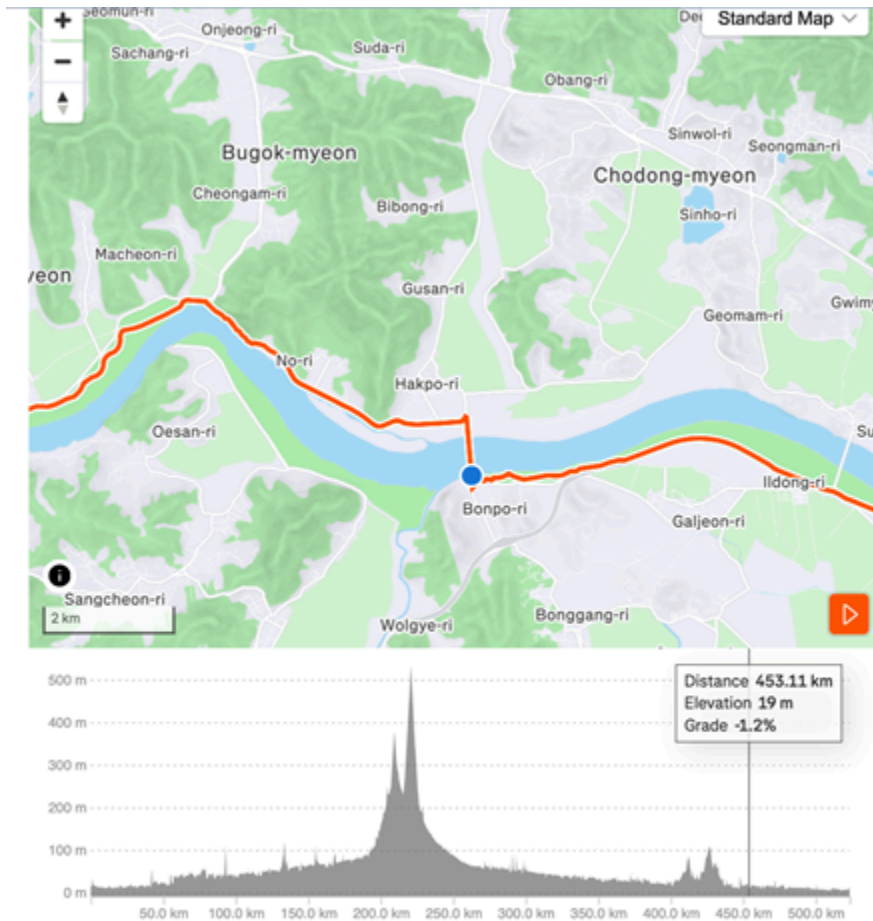

We'll take a ride along Yeong River with it's low hills and small islands before we hit Nakdong River. Nakdong River is the main river that will flow down through to Busan. We will go through the Pungyang area and see rice patties and small farms as we head to Uiseong-gun. We'll be staying at the colorful Benz Hotel. Along the way to the hotel, stop at a convenience store or fried chicken house and stock up for a fun, restful night.

Day 7: Gumi to Daegu

Today we'll pass through Haepyeong and Sandong and through the city of Gumi- a city once famous for its mostly female population. As Samsung became a major power in the world of cellphones, they needed keen female eyes and nimble fingers to make the displays for the phones. It liberated many women and they made their fortunes to follow their dreams of college, travel, and their own businesses. Then we'll go to Daegu. We'll be staying at Billion Western Hotel which overlooks the parks and city. You should party for you are almost at the finish line. Today's ride is 75km with an elevation of 100m.

Hotel: Billion Western Hotel Address 467, Dalseo-daero, Dalseo-gu Daegu

Day 8: Through Yeongsan Valley

Today we'll take a shortcut through Hyeonpung-eup to see the suburbs and farms. There are nice cafes and villages as we ride inland. We'll go through Gyeseong-myeong which is famous for its fruits and vegetables to Gyeseong-myeon.

Day 9: The Trail to Busan

We'll be going down the final stretch to Busan as we connect back to the Nakdong River. As we start the ride back on the river, the water is fresh, but as we get closer to the coast, it turns to brackish water. This unique ecological feature creates one of the world's largest estuaries as birds come from all over the world to migrate here. We'll see the mountains and hills turn to coastlines and we'll end our ride at the Nakdonggang Estuary Park. Here we'll celebrate our ride at the park and see the park and museum. We'll park our bikes and we'll then grab our transport to our hotel on Haeundae Beach. We'll be near Spaland at the world's largest department store: Shinsegae's Centum City. You might want to relax there.

Day 10: Train to Seoul

We hope you enjoyed your tour. This will be the end of the tour but luckily, Busan is a wonderful hub to continue your trip around Korea such as visiting nearby Busan. You can also grab a hydrofoil ferry boat and go to Fukuoka or you can take the KTX train to go back to Seoul (2.5 hours). Plan in advance and let us know so we can help you make arrangements.
